

Diversity is the key to me

Different genders or maybe coloured hair, but we still need to care, because they are still there.

Ignorance and hatred can appear, but don't show fear,
the path will clear.

Varieties of races, skin colour and religion, but no need to worry, keep this in your vision.

Enjoy one another until it ends, you are different from your friends, but you don't need to follow the same trends.

Love everyone,
near and dear,
at this festive time of year.
