

GGA – Writing (Stories by the same author) for Year Two

Success Criteria

I included a beginning, problem, resolution and ending.

I used sentences that made me sound like the author I have read.

I can use the correct tense (past tense for things that have already happened and present tense for things happening now).

I can use short sentences and sentences joined together with conjunctions.

I included a moral in my story.

Moral

A moral is a lesson that can be learned from a story.

Conjunctions

and

but so when

if because

Why are we learning this?

Stories are enjoyable to read!
Other people enjoy reading our stories.

Why is it important?

Reading stories helps us to develop our imagination and, most of all, is fun!

Remember that in Year Two you must always:

A

Use capital letters.

. ? !

Use full stops, question marks or exclamation marks at the end of sentences.

Reread your writing to check it makes sense.

Check your spellings using your phonics and spelling rules.

Form your letters correctly and make your handwriting neat.

Write and underline your date and WALT.

