Why are we learning this?

So we know how festivals and family life show what matters to Jewish people.

Why is it important?

So that we can suggest answers about whether it is good for Jews and everyone else to remember the past and look forward to the future.

What am I going to learn?

To identify some Jewish beliefs about God, sin and forgiveness and describe what they mean.

To make clear links between the story of the Exodus and Jewish beliefs about God and his relationships with the Jewish people.

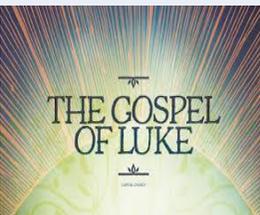

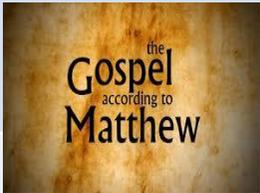

To make simple links between Jewish beliefs about God and his people and how Jews live.

To make links with the value of personal reflection, saying 'sorry', being forgiven and justice in the world today

Why are we learning this?

So we know why Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday.'

Why is it important?

So that we can raise questions and suggest answers to what we find out.

What am I going to learn?

To recognise the word salvation and that Christians believe Jesus came to 'save' people by showing them how to live.

To make suggestions about what the events of Holy Week mean to Christians.

To make links between the Gospel accounts and how Christians mark Easter events.

To describe how Christians show their beliefs about Jesus in worship in different ways.
