Vocabulary

Dynamics (Volume)	The loudness of the music, usually described with loud or quiet
Dance choreography	Dancing is to step or move through a series of movements usually in time to music. Choreography is to make up dances by planning and arranging the movements, steps, and patterns of dancers.
March	To walk in a military style to a regular steady beat.

Skills that I am going to learn.

Composing	Listening & responding	Playing instruments
Creating a piece of music with voices, body percussion and instruments	To a piece of music, describing the dynamics	Identifying instruments to match a piece of music or idea

Instruments and how we play them

I can hit the drums with sticks or tap the drums with my hand

Why are we learning this?

To be able to describe the dynamics of music and how it is linked to topics or images.

Why is it important?

To help when we create music, to make sure it has the correct feeling. Also using different dynamics to make it more interesting.

Vocabulary

Conductor	The person who leads a group of singers or instrumentalists
Storyboard	A storyboard is a writing format, generally a set of boxes (or rectangles, circles, or other shapes) placed in a logically sequenced order. Each box or frame is a place for the writer to put information, pictures, symbols, or text.
Structure	Most music is underpinned by a structure which may be as simple as beginning, middle and end

Skills that I am going to learn.

Leading

Following the conductor (leader) and taking turns to be the leader

Listening and responding

Match different sounds with images and feelings or emotions

Following

A storyboard score and thinking of the sounds to match the pictures

Why are we learning this?

To follow the leader and to confidently lead the group.

To understand that our voices or instruments can be used in different ways.

Why is it important?

To learn to take turns.

For music to create different sounds and feelings - calm us down, get us excited, make us happy or sad.

Instruments and how we play them

I can shake the maracas
